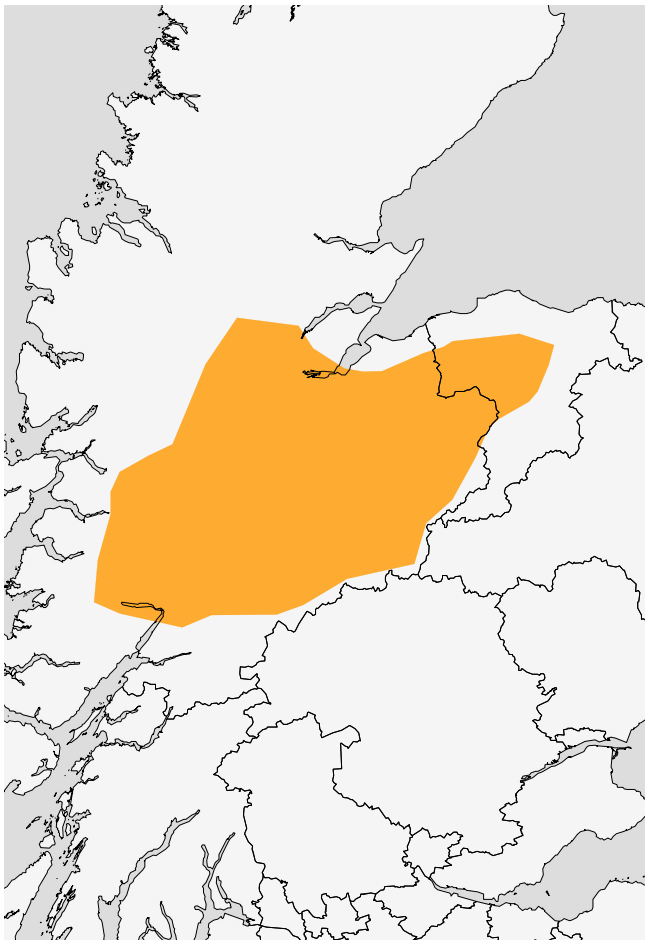
Amber warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Tue 31 Dec 2024 and
17:00 Tue 31 Dec 2024



Heavy rain developing through Monday night and Tuesday morning is likely to cause some property flooding and travel disruption.

What to expect

- Spray and flooding probably leading to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Delays and some cancellations to train and bus services are likely
- A good chance some communities will be cut off by flooded roads
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is likely, causing some homes and businesses to be flooded.
- Power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses likely
- Homes and businesses may be flooded, causing damage to some buildings

Further details

After a brief lull during Monday afternoon, another period of heavy rain is expected to develop during Monday night and persist through Tuesday morning before turning to showers on Tuesday afternoon, giving another 50-70mm on top of what has already fallen. This is likely to lead to significant travel disruption and may result in some flooding of properties.

Yellow rain and snow warnings will continue to be in force after the expiry of this warning.

What should I do?

Keep yourself and others safe; prepare to avoid travelling by road during potentially dangerous road conditions. If you must travel, ensure you watch for possible danger and drive cautiously.

It is not safe to drive, walk or swim through floodwater, avoid it where possible and if you are affected by fast flowing or deep-water call 999, and wait for help.

Preparing a flood kit could save you from loss or damage due to flooding to your home or business. In your flood kit have: insurance and any other important documents; a torch & spare batteries; a first aid kit, prescription medicines and supplies for looking after your family members or pets; and warm, waterproof clothes, blankets, food and water.

Consider checking on vulnerable people that you know including older people, those with underlying conditions and those who live alone; they may need support with food and medical supplies. If you are worried about your health or that of somebody you know, ring NHS 111.

Stay up to date with the weather forecast for your area and follow advice from emergency services and local authorities.
